

2006 Global Social Entrepreneurship Competition (GSEC) Student Team Hosts

(Note: Team hosts are for teams not from the University of Washington)

Team Host Supervisor: Alyson Schweitzer, schweial@u.washington.edu

For a full list of GSEC 2006 Teams click here

University	Business Idea	Team Host Name	Team Host Email	Team Host Field
Shanghai Jiao Tong (China)	Turn domestic sewage into fertilizer and apply using gravity-based system in hilly regions	Jinfei Yu	yujinfei@u.washington.edu	2nd-year graduate student in Bioengineering Department
Bharathidasan (India)	Recycle old personal computers for low-income markets	Joe Przybyla	joeprzybyla@hotmail.com	Evening MBA student
S.P. Jain Institute of Management (India)	Provide storage centers so that poor farmers can delay selling products until market prices are favorable	Noriko Osada	nosada@u.washington.edu	MBA, interested in microfinance, from Japan, worked for UN in Iraq
KAIST (Korea)	Manufacture hand-cranked AM radios in Mongolia for use by rural population without access to electricity	Kevin Obbayi	kobbayi@u.washington.edu	Evening MBA student
Kobe University (Japan)	Produce and manufacture mosquito coils and mosquito mats.	Ian Bergman	ian@ianbergmanmail.com	MBA, last year GSEC participant,
Baylor University (US)	Provide wind-generated electricity to poor neighborhoods in Nairobi, Kenya	Lian Zhou	zhoulian@u.wa	MBA, from China